5.7. Technical Validation

- 5.7.1. All Applications for امارات. (dotEmarat) Arabic Domain Names will be technically assessed to ensure that the Domain Name Applied for meets the technical requirements of the .aeDA Registry System.
- 5.7.2. Where the Application does not meet the technical requirements, the .aeDA Registry System will reject the Application.

5.8. Allocation of Domain Names during Sunrise Period

5.8.1. Where two or more validated Applications are received for a particular امارات. (dotEmarat) Arabic Domain Name during the Sunrise Period, the successful Applicant will be chosen based on the following priority list:

- 5.8.1.1. Trademarks registered in the Arabic script by a UAE Government Entity;
- 5.8.1.2. Trademarks registered in the Arabic script in the UAE;
- 5.8.1.3. Trademarks registered in the Arabic script in other jurisdictions;
- 5.8.1.4. Trademarks registered in other scripts in the UAE;
- 5.8.1.5. Trademarks registered in other scripts in other member states of the League of Arab States.

By way of an example, where there are two validated Applications received for the same امارات. (dotEmarat) Arabic Domain Name; and

- Applicant A has an Arabic script Trademark registered in the United Arab Emirates;
- Applicant B has an Arabic script Trademark registered in another jurisdiction; then
- the Domain Name should be registered in favour of Applicant A.

5.8.2. Where two or more validated Applications are received for a امارات. (dotEmarat) Arabic Domain Name during the Sunrise Period, and the basis for at least two of the Applications are of equal priority, and there is no other Application of higher priority, the allocation of the Domain Name will be conducted by Auction.

5.8.3. Only the Applicants whose Applications are of equal and highest priority will be allowed to participate in the Auction. Any Applicant for the امارات. (dotEmarat) Arabic Domain Name with a validated Application of lower priority will be excluded from the Auction.

By way of example, where there are three validated Applications received for the same امارات. (dotEmarat) Arabic Domain Name; and

- Applicants A & B have Arabic script Trademarks registered outside the United Arab Emirates;
- Applicant C has a Trademark registered in another script in the United Arab Emirates; then
- the Domain Name would be allocated by Auction, contested by Applicants A & B.

5.9. Sunrise Auctions

5.9.1. General

- 5.9.1.1. Where an Auction is required for the allocation of a امارات. (dotEmarat) Arabic Domain Name during the Sunrise Period, the Applicants that are eligible to contest the Auction will be notified at least 5 Business Days prior to the commencement of the Auction.
- 5.9.1.2. Details of all eligible Applicants and the basis for their eligibility will be sent to each of the eligible Contestants.
- 5.9.1.3. Should a Contestant dispute the eligibility of a competing Contestant for a particular Auction, then the Contestant must state the basis for the dispute to .aeDA prior to the commencement of the Auction.
- 5.9.1.4. The Contestant that challenges the eligibility of a competing Contestant shall have the burden of proving the validity of its challenge before a competent tribunal.
- 5.9.1.5. In the event of dispute to the eligibility of a Contestant , the .aeDA shall suspend the Auction process until the dispute is resolved by a competent tribunal.

5.9.2. Sunrise Auction Process

- 5.9.2.1. Auctions will be conducted using the 'English-style' open ascending Auction model. The Contestants for each Auction will be able to submit bids, with each new bid being higher than the previous bid.
- 5.9.2.2. Each Contestant in an Auction will be able to view the other bids being placed.
- 5.9.2.3. The Auction will complete when no Contestant is willing to submit a higher bid, and the winner of the Auction will be the Contestant with the highest bid at that point in time. The امارات. (dotEmarat) Arabic Domain Name will then be registered in favour of the winner of Auction, subject to the payment of all applicable fees and charges.
- 5.9.2.4. Should an eligible Contestant wish to withdraw from an Auction, they should notify the .aeDA at least one day prior to the commencement of the Auction.
- 5.9.2.5. If a withdrawal leaves only one eligible Contestant, the Auction will be cancelled and the Domain Name will be allocated in favour of the remaining Contestant. Fees will apply in order to register امارات. (dotEmarat) Arabic Domain Name.

- 5.9.2.6. Where an Auction is conducted and no bids are received during the time allocated for that Auction, the Domain Name will be allocated in favour of the Contestant who have Applied first on the highest priority. The other Contestants will be deemed to have withdrawn their Applications for the امارات. (dotEmarat) Arabic Domain Name.
- 5.9.2.7. All bids placed during the Auction process will be legally binding agreements to enter into a Domain Name Licence for the امارات. (dotEmarat) Arabic Domain Name, and to make payment of the price of the maximum bid placed by the Contestant. Bids may not be retracted or cancelled.
- 5.9.2.8. Contestants that do not pay all fees due, within 7 Business Days will be deemed to have withdrawn their Application for the Domain Name. The .aeDA will then conduct a new Auction, allocate the امارات. (dotEmarat) Arabic Domain Names to the next highest priority Applicant, or release the name for Registration, as deemed appropriate by .aeDA from time to time.
- 5.9.2.9. The .aeDA reserves the right to exclude any Contestants that do not pay all fees due within the allocated time from further participation in the Sunrise Period and the Landrush Period.
- 5.9.2.10. Full details of the Auction process will be provided to all eligible Contestants prior to the commencement of each Auction.
